appointed E. D. Wheelock Wesley Travis and Walter A. Dawson as reviewers to meet to view said proposed highway on the tenth day of June A.D. 1881 and Clerk ordered to notify the County Surveyor to meet with the reviewers.

The question of roads and bridges coming up the Board adopted the following Preamble &

May 28th 1881

Resolution in regard to Roads & Bridges

resolution

Whereas. the construction of the several bridges asked for by the people of different portions of the county and necessary in order to do equal and exact justice to the several sections of the county would require an expenditure of at least ten thousand dollars And

Whereas the commissioners have no authority to expend sufficient money to construct bridges to an extent at all adequate to the demand or in anywise a fair distribution of the public funds without a vote of the people authorizing an extraordinary out lay of money. Therefore be it

Resolved. That no money be expended on roads and bridges for the ensuing year except the regular road and bridge tax. under the controll of the several road supervisors. unless a respectable number of the citizens of the county shall petition the Board of Commissioners. to call an election for the submission of the question. of an extraordinary expenditure of money for the Erection of bridges And voting a special tax to meet such expenditure and special tax shall be ordered by the people at such election.
